THINGS TO DO AT QUEEN ELIZABETH PARK

Visit the London 2012 Olympic venues – book a tour of London Stadium, swim in the pool of champions at the London Aquatics Centre, or take a spin on the tracks at the Lee Valley VeloPark. Take in the London views from the top of the ArcelorMittal Orbit and dare yourself to ride the Slide – the world’s longest indoor tunnel slide! Enjoy the beautiful gardens – the Park’s hidden gems include the Great British Garden, the wetlands and the new London Blossom Garden, commemorating those affected by the pandemic. Discover art in the Park – from the spectacular ArcelorMittal Orbit to small scale works in unexpected places, the art installed throughout the Park for London 2012 continues to inspire. Dine in the Park’s many cafes and restaurants, including The Last Drop near the ArcelorMittal Orbit, Hackney Bridge next to the Copper Box Arena, and the award winning floating restaurant Barge East. Follow the 2012 Trail including visits to the Olympic Rings and Agitos symbols mounted in the north Park, and the Olympic Bell from the opening ceremony next to London Stadium. For more information, visit the Park’s Information Point at the Pavilion near the Westfield entrance.
