THINGS TO DO IN KIRKLEES

Start your evening early in this true Yorkshire town, the birthplace of Rugby League, and enjoy some food and drink in one of our many restaurants, pubs and bars. All a short walk from Huddersfield train station, nominated car parks and the stadium itself, choose from traditional pub food, middle eastern, Italian, Indian and more. You could even make a night of it and stay over enabling you to enjoy Kirklees' vibrant towns full of art and creativity, local landmarks like Castle Hill, or one of the centuries old villages - set against a backdrop of Pennine Moors and Peak District parkland - all steeped in local history with buildings and locations made famous by writers, film and television.
