PLAN YOUR TRIP

BY TRAIN

Manchester Victoria train station, served by local and regional services from destinations across the North of England, is just 2 miles from the stadium. Manchester's principal railway station, Manchester Piccadilly station, is also nearby (3 miles). Piccadilly station is served by long-distance intercity and cross country services to national destinations including London, Edinburgh and Cardiff. From these train stations, you are able to reach the stadium by bus or tram.

BY BUS

There are several bus links from Manchester city centre to Old Trafford:

From China Town, take bus number V1 to Old Trafford. Alternatively, from Piccadilly Gardens, take bus number 255, 256 or 263 to Warwick Road. Customers can also reach the stadium by taking the X50 bus from Deansgate Station to Waterside.

Manchester operates a free bus service within the city centre – for more information, please visit www.tfgm.com

BY TRAM

To reach the stadium by tram, take the Altrincham Line from Manchester Piccadilly, alighting at Old Trafford; the Eccles Line from Manchester Piccadilly, alighting at Exchange Quay; The Trafford Centre line from Cornbrook, alighting at Wharfside. Tram services run every 10 to 20 minutes.

BY CAR

The postcode to use for Old Trafford is M16 0RA. For directions by car, use the RLWC2021 journey planner.

THINGS TO DO IN MANCHESTER AND TRAFFORD

Whether you're seeking culture, nightlife, history, or just good fun, there is plenty to do in Trafford and Manchester. Be absorbed by beautiful attractions such as the gothic architecture at John Rylands Library and Manchester Cathedral; explore cool neighbourhoods like Altrincham; take in fine art at Manchester Art Gallery and the Whitworth; discover history, old and new, at the Science and Industry Museum and Imperial War Museum North; or see contemporary arts redefined at HOME and Waterside arts centre. Of course, Manchester is synonymous with football, so make some time to tour the grounds of Manchester United and Manchester City, and discover the social history of the beautiful game at the National Football Museum.
