THINGS TO DO IN ST HELENS

St Helens boasts a wealth of stunning parks and open spaces - from the award winning Victoria Park to Bold Forest Park - home of the iconic sculpture, Dream, which attracts tens of thousands of visitors each year. If it's the Town's industry history you're after, look no further than the World of Glass Museum - situated a short walk away from the Totally Wicked Stadium - while the weekly Friday Earlestown Market, which dates back around 700 years; the North West Museum of Road Transport - and the world class Horseracing at Haydock Park Racecourse are always a safe bet.
