THINGS TO DO IN BOLTON

Welcome to Bolton – one of the UK's friendliest towns. We've got great history and heritage, fantastic countryside and open spaces, plus loads of great leisure and shopping all combined with a population who love to meet new people and have a good old chat!

There's loads of great places to visit; from historic halls to wonderful museums including our fascinating Egypt Gallery. If you want to get active then take a walk in the countryside or a swing from the trees at Go Ape! There are plenty of places to eat and drink too including well known restaurant chains and cafes in our towns, including the Market Place Shopping Centre and Middlebrook Retail Park, plus loads for shoppers from top high street names to unique independent stores.

Whatever you choose to do, you're guaranteed a great day out.
